WAGGIN' TRAIN & THE VILLAGE VETS
DONATE TREATS FOR RESCUED DOGS

(Anderson, SC) April 3, 2009 – Waggin' Train LLC and The Village Vets, a full-service veterinary hospital in Decatur, GA, have partnered to contribute $900 worth of dog treats to Atlanta's Animal Action Rescue and their very deserving dogs. The donation includes a variety of Waggin' Train's all-natural Chicken Jerky Tenders and Meat Blast natural baked chews.

"The Village Vets and Waggin' Train share the philosophy of giving back to the communities where we live and work. With demand escalating and donations declining, animal rescue organizations are in desperate need of support," said Holly Hess Waddell, Waggin' Train's senior brand manager. "We're pleased to bring a little bit of happiness to the Animal Action Rescue dogs until they find loving homes."

About Animal Action Rescue

Animal Action Rescue is a 501c3 licensed non-breed specific animal rescue organization dedicated to the rescue of unwanted, neglected and/or abused animals until proper, permanent homes can be found. The Atlanta organization promotes spay/neuter programs and provides education for each pet it places. For more information or to make a donation, visit www.animalactionrescue.org.

About The Village Vets

Dr. Will Draper and Dr. Francoise Tyler, both 1991 graduates of Tuskegee University's School of Veterinary Medicine (and married since 1993), opened The Village Vets of Decatur in 2001. They offer a full-service animal hospital and provide a wide range of services such as preventative health care, dental care, surgery, boarding and grooming.

The hospital staff at The Village Vets consists of well-trained and highly qualified personnel, who constantly strive to provide the best medical and surgical care possible. The entire staff is proud to have been voted one of the Atlanta metro area's top veterinary practices in the February 2009 edition of Atlanta Magazine. This is their third consecutive honor in the publication's "The Best for Our Pets" contest.
